Training Consultants (Apprenticeship) London

Dayspring Training, a Croydon based supplier of Work Based Learning Programmes offering unique opportunities in the Greater London area, is seeking to appoint Apprentice Tutors. The role will support learners at the businesses training centre and at employer locations in the locality. This exceptional opportunity means you could make a real difference to people's careers.

The ideal applicant will possess a thorough understanding of apprenticeships and placement of trainees in vocational fields, with industrial-commercial placement being an advantage. An understanding of young learners and those from a disadvantaged background is necessary. We are looking for people with imagination, energy, enthusiasm, and you must be comfortable working collaboratively and effectively with people and organizations in a range of settings.

You will manage a large caseload of between 35 – 40 candidates and visit learners in the workplace around the Greater London areas. You will be responsible for delivering apprenticeships including key skills and technical certificates to learners in groups and on a one to one basis. You will be responsible for identifying and signing up new learners by networking and obtaining leads from both candidates and managers within the industry and promoting a variety of courses on offer.

We expect you to be self motivated, financially driven and a confident communicator at all levels. Furthermore we expect you to have worked in a target driven environment before. You will be expected to work on your own work programme according to our business needs and to deliver within the time framework specified at the beginning of your appointment - as at times this could be early mornings or late evenings. There is a requirement for you to undertake ongoing training and self development to enhance your career prospects.

The requirements for this position are: A1/V1 qualified with occupational competency and NVQ Level 3/4 or above in the relevant subject areas. You will be working with full apprenticeships up to and including Level 3, in Business Administration/Customer service and Social Care both Adults and Children. You will also be expected to have experience of delivering Key Skills/Functional Skills. You will be required to ensure that a first class service is adhered to and that our robust quality assurance standards are fully complied with.

This is a self-employed, consultancy based assignment with generous outcomes based payment profile structure. If you think you have what it takes, then we want to hear from you now!
